

Kabbarli Early Learning Centre Philosophy

- Secure attachments with caregivers and educators create positive outcomes for children
- Our service is only as good as the team within it
- Children are the most precious and important people within our community
- Children learn best through their play and connection with others.
- Culture plays a significant part in children's life and will always be respected and valued within our service
- Ongoing professional training is imperative for educators
- All children and families will be respected and included within the service
- Children are unique individuals who learn about their world at their own pace
- A safe, hygienic and fun environment will be created for children and families to enjoy
- Children's rights and needs come first
- Children will be listened to and validated
- Children can feel safe and free to express themselves within our service environment
- Our educational program meets the interests and needs of individual children
